In your finished bibliography, journal articles should be arranged in alphabetical order (by author of the article) once you have finished your research.

Assignment.

In order to protect your own plagiarism (measures of copyright and fair use are not legal/technical measures), you must:

1. Identify the information.
2. Use a special system (known as the Harvard system) that is used to record your sources (the books you used). This system is used in all institutions and throughout senior school subjects.
